

---

Mr. Xinming Lyu was appointed Representative of China on the ICAO Council on 18 August 2023.

Mr. Lyu has 28 years of experience in different sections of the Civil Aviation Administration of China (CAAC).

Before arriving in Montreal, he served as Director General in the Airworthiness Certification Center of CAAC and was responsible for Aircraft airworthiness certification. Prior to that, Mr. Lyu served as the Deputy Director General of the East Regional Administration of CAAC and was in charge of Aircraft airworthiness certification, Aircraft maintenance, Flight Operation Certification and Surveillance, Transportation Management, and Aviation medical service. From 2003-2016, he held various positions at the Flight Standards Department of CAAC.

Due to his extensive background in both technical and managerial fields, Mr. Lyu co-chaired APRAST (Asia and Pacific Regional Aviation Safety Team, ICAO) from 2017-2020.

Mr. Lyu graduated from Nanjing University of Aeronautics and Astronautics with a Master's degree in Management Engineering and started his career as an academic instructor in the Engineering Department of the Civil Aviation Management Institute of China (CAMIC).